DEDICATION

To Monsignor Lester:

For ten years you guided the students of Central Catholic as our principal. Your influence was felt by all who passed through these halls during those years. Your untiring efforts to make C.C. the outstanding school that it is, instilled in us a pride in our school and an appreciation of its values. Besides being principal of Central Catholic, and carrying the many burdens of that office, you had the added duty of supervising the diocesan school system. When it became impossible to give adequate attention to both tasks, and you had to leave Central Catholic, we students lost a warm friend, a sincere advisor, and an energetic leader. In thanksgiving for all your efforts on behalf of Central Catholic and its students, we dedicate our yearbook to you, Monsignor Lester.

DEDICATION

11491'72

To Father Hammond:

In the single year that you have been principal of Central Catholic you have established an outstanding record. The experience that you gained from your many years as a Senior homeroom teacher you used wisely as principal. Just as there are differences in people, there are differences in administration; the principles of our Catholic school system remain the same, but policies change with the advance of new leadership. You have brought just such a change with you. We have seen new approaches to old problems, new answers to old questions, and we are sure that in the future, under your direction, Central Catholic will continue to maintain its fine reputation. We congratulate you for a job well done and dedicate to you, Father Hammond, the 1961 ECHO.

ADMINISTRATION

Sister Marie Helen, our assistant principal, works day and night to make this school what it is today and better, if possible. Sister is admired and respected by all.

Sister Bonasa is the indispensable right hand of St. Marie Helen.

Father Muldoon is the friendly priest who manages all the business transactions here at C.C., a big job for any one. Fother is also associated with St. Aloysius Parish in Yoder.

Elaine, as she is known to us, is a bright ray of sunshine to all who enter Fr. Hammond's office.

Our Spiritual Director, Fr. Zimmerman has been a source of grace and strength to many C.C. students. His unceasing devotion serves as an example to all who know him.

One of the most valuable additions to the C.C. faculty in recent years was that of having priests from the city teach some of our religion classes. Thank you Frs. for your valuable service.

Left to right — Fr. Balzer, Fr. Emanuel, Fr. Isenbarger, and Fr. Krasan In Absentia; Fr. Nugent.

Mrs. Voars divides her religion class into groups to discuss various problems of our faith.

Someone seems about to challenge the point made by Tam Jordan during Fr. Isenbarger's senior religion class.

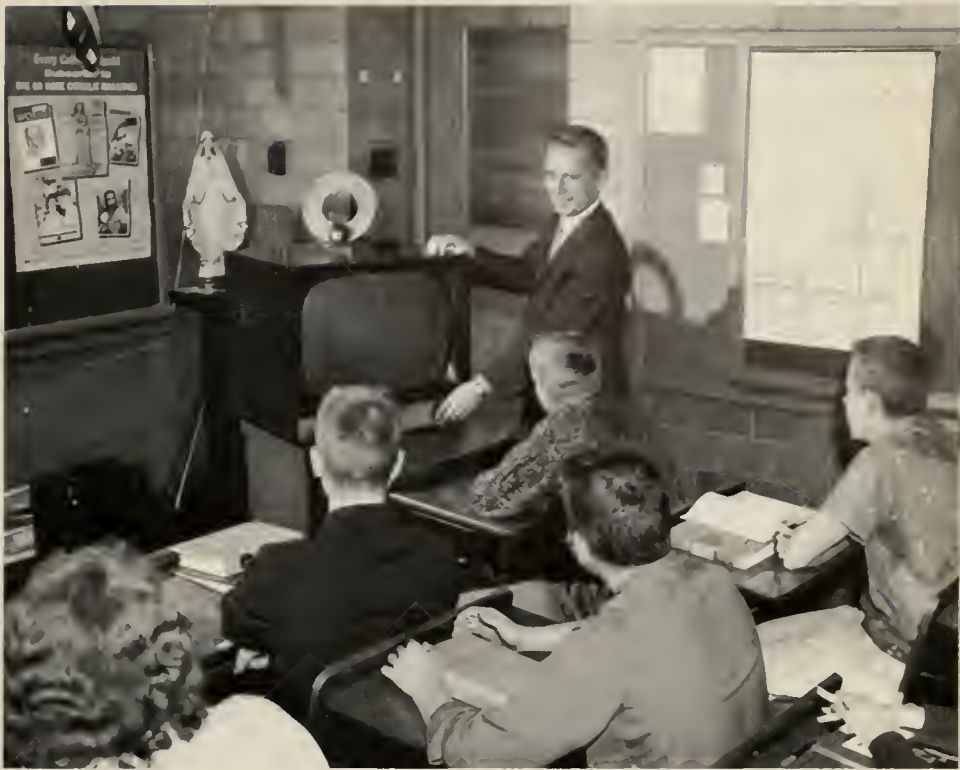

Chuck Faate points out some interesting facts about Egypt while Miss Morris and world history students look on.

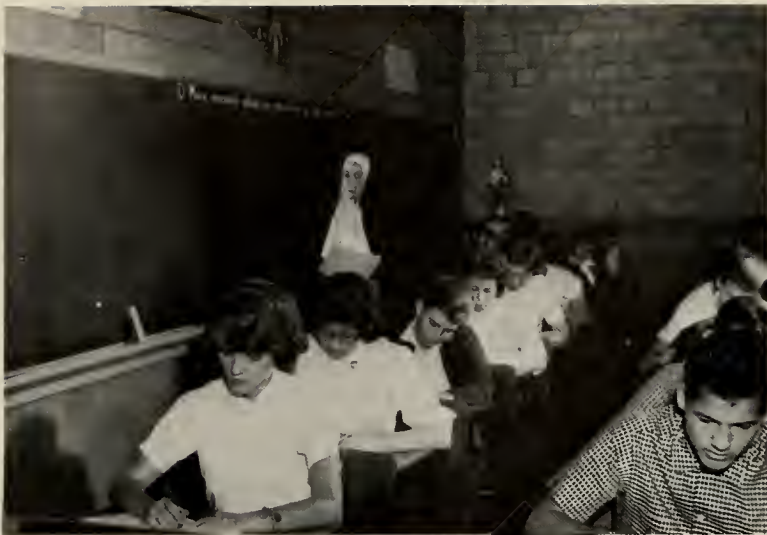

The geography students of Sr. Regina Therese use a globe and maps to keep abreast of the tense African situation.

Mr. Daniel's government class tunes in the news on T.V. Keeping up with current events, you know.

Sr. Irma Agnes and a group of U.S. History students discuss topics for a panel discussion.

The Latin scholars take an exam from Sr. Maureen Clare.

Language

English students make their selections from Sr. Constance's library of classics.

Sr. Marie Angele's French I class uses recordings to perfect l'accent de francais.

Sr. Mary Loretta's English students use the Readers Digest to improve reading speed and vocabulary.

Arts

S. Yoggy, S. Noll, and T. Skevington discuss a fine point during Sr. Loretta Anne's Spanish I class.

Sr. Timothy aids her senior math class in solving a difficult problem.

The geometry class looks on as Barbara Schlensker demonstrates a theorem for Sr. Conrad.

Math

Math scholars gather around the board as Bill Kossen solves a difficult problem in Sr. Marie Hildegard's fifth year math class.

The flower is the object of discussion during biology lab under the direction of Sr. Gertrude Margaret.

Future chemists R. Kortenber, S. Strawbridge, T. Gebhart and A. Brough perform on experiment for Sr. Jean Margaret.

Science

Young physicists solve problems with the valuable aid of Sr. Mary Mogdalen.

Skill Development

Practice makes perfect in Sr. Mary Christyn's shorthand class.

Sr. Frances Borgio looks on as the members of her class work at improving their typing skill.

"What's cooking?" might be the question asked in Sr. Mary Immaculee's home economics class.

Members of the Echo Quill & Scroll are: SEATED — E. DeVold, R. Schlensker, V. Geller, M. Crosby, C. Fritz. STANDING — S. Miller, B. Schreck, B. Hogg, P. Miller, T. Nieb.

The members of the Quiz team that brought honor to C.C. are K. Connell, B. Kassen, J. Hirshfelder, M. Schoefer.

SENIORS

Outstanding

Most Scholarly

The Choice of Mary and Klemm as most scholarly seniors by their classmates proved a wise one for these two honor students are Valedictorian and Salutatorian as well.

Most

The most co-operative title this year went to Monica Mahoney and Tom Nieb. These two seniors by their willingness to spend much

Most Friendly

The cheerful "Hello" and happy smile of Mel and Kay have brightened the day of everyone who walks C.C.'s halls at least once. Their wonderful personalities make C.C. a much nicer place to be.

Seniors

Most Athletic

The Class of '61' did not have too difficult a decision to make when it came to choosing their most athletic classmates. Bob has been an active member of most C.C. teams. Lisa as president of the G.A.A. likewise earned her title.

Cooperative

time and energy with work on committees and clubs surely earned this reward.

Most Ladylike and Gentlemanly

Refined and courteous, Bob and Judy set a fine example of the perfect lady and gentleman for the less polished C.C.ers. Politeness plus — they have it.

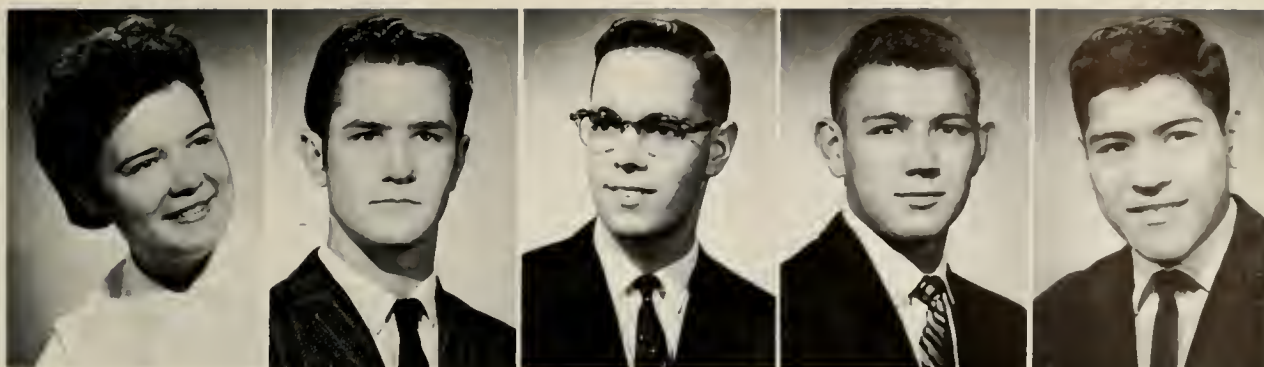

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

L. to R. Dave Langas — President, Delores Hiatt — Vice-Pres., William Kassen — Secy., Kay Denig — Treas.

As the Class of 1961 leaves C. C., we like to reflect on some of our milestones here. In the dim past, when we were Freshmen, we were the first class to have cheerleaders for our freshmen teams, and a fine job they did too. Next year we managed to have fun and make money when we inaugurated the Sophomore Sock Hop. Our first social whirl as a class was the Junior Dance, where things were a bit crowded, but everyone had a wonderful time. This year our football team, led by the Seniors, took city, and put a fine number of players on the all-city team. We scored another first this year when our class, led by Mr. Daniels and the Civics Club, published the first Student Directory. Our high school days are almost over now, and though we wouldn't give them up for anything, as we leave C. C. we must remember that the future for which we have been prepared lies open before us.

Valedictorian

The valedictorian of the senior class this is Klemn Connell. No one deserves the honor more than this active senior, with a 96.4 average.
Good Luck, Klemn!

Salutatorian

Our salutatorian is Mary Harber, a sweet person to know with an academic record to match. Her average 95.9 makes her the highest girl in the class.
Well done, Mary!

The fictional town of Belele is a chunk of northeast Africa. As Griffin tells it, Mussolini made it an ornament of empire in the thirties. Now the British are trying to win it through a mandate. To the west of the area, native hatred is a fact of life as the brutal howls of hyenas.

There is a fort, a few British officers, and as unreliable as the British are, the Italians still remaining are British successors, who are the only service in such a post is a failure.

There is order in Belele and the cause Mafor de Goltz created a totality. His command is a lot of blacks, whom he keeps gaggings. In all the district

Soon after entering Central Catholic the class of "62" was faced with the task of selecting class officers to represent it during that difficult period of adjustment, the Freshman year. The class responded by choosing capable and responsible students for these important positions. Sophomore year the elected officers were faced with even greater responsibilities, their capabilities can be seen by the resounding success of the Sophomore Sock Hop of which they were the chief planners. This year the Junior officers faced the task of selecting class rings and pleased a vast majority of their classmates with their wise choice. The success of the Junior Dance also demonstrates the skill and perseverance of those capable leaders. It can easily be said that the class of 1962 has shown wisdom and responsibility in its selection of leaders to help compile this fine three year record.

SOPHOMORES

The Class of "63", though only a second year member of Central Catholic, has achieved outstanding success in many fields. In one quarter as many as sixty Sophomores were named to the Honor Roll. Representatives of this class have won many awards and acknowledgements in statewide music and scholastic competitions. A wide range of interests and skills is demonstrated by the Sophomore excellence in athletic contests as well as those of a more serious nature. As Freshmen the girls distinguished themselves by defeating the upperclassmen and becoming intramural volleyball champs. The boys too have an admirable record. They have been praised by the coaches for showing promise in all phases of athletics. In football they have two undefeated seasons in a row to show for their skill, hard work, and perseverance. Yes the Sophomore class though young has become an integral part of the C.C. scene.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen approached the hallowed halls of Central Catholic with mixed emotions, awe, reverence and a great deal of excitement. Impressed by tales of past triumphs of C.C. and scared by tales of Freshmen being liquidated by those sophisticated Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors they walked warily into that new world "High School."

It took quite a lot of doing to prove they weren't as green as was first reported, but once in the swim there was no holding them. The Freshman girls' volleyball team defeated all comers including exalted Seniors. The Little Irish gathered several admirable victories in both football and basketball. C.C. found many future varsity players in these promising young athletes. The Frosh took over in the Music Department and became active in a number of clubs. The election of officers again proved the responsibility of these youngest members of the C.C. family, they chose wisely and carefully. Yes in all their activities these Freshmen have won their place in Central Catholic.

Junior Dance

The decorations were blue and white and the air was romantically filled with the music of Dick Alexander and his Townsmen. Memories will live on to that "Wonderland By Night." The Juniors are to be commended for the marvelous dance they sponsored. It will long be remembered by the entire student body.

Senior Prom

Pastel colors accented the four season motif of the Senior Prom, "As Time Goes By." The mood was a romantic one as the couples danced to the beautiful music of Dick Alexander's Band.

The highlight of this elegant evening the crowning of the Blessed Virgin by Queen Kay Denig.

Congratulations Coach and Team

The entire student body wishes to extend its sincere congratulations to you Mr. Bartkiewicz for a job well done. It has been 10 years since C.C. laid undisputed claim to the city title; however, in 1958, your first year with us, you led your team to a four-way tie for the championship. This year with that fine combination of experience and leadership you turned out a fine team. Without you it couldn't have been done. So we offer our sincerest gratitude to you, coach for a splendid season.

The North touchdown followed. The Redskins gained possession of the CC three-yard line, after a punt by Langan, from his end zone against a strong wind, was taken by Werling on the three. Since the line of scrimmage was the four-yard line, the punt resulted in a minus — 1 yard kick for C.C.

The winners marched 80 yards to their fifth touchdown, made Vachon's three-yard burst early in the final quarter. The key play in the march was a 35-yard jaunt by Vachon. Perriguy's kick failed. Kelker recovered a fumble in the North backfield in a minute and Perriguy converted. The play C.C. had fumbled on the R.

The Irish won-lost record was not too impressive this year, but the perseverance, drive, and sportsmanship of our boys was very inspiring. The coach worked hard and the team played hard. Bucking a tough schedule, lacking the height and experience of last year's team, the boys went into every game with drive and enthusiasm. They achieved several outstanding victories and suffered some heart breaking defeats. No one who faced C.C. this year had an easy time. Our games were invariably a hard fought battle to the end.

The test of a true athlete however, does not consist only of winning games. Sportsmanship — his relationship with the opposing players; cooperation — his relationship with his teammates and his willingness to surrender personal honor to team victories; and integrity — his representation of the school and its ideals, are the qualities of every true athlete. Our Irish measured up to these standards and should be congratulated for their very fine performance.

Track

Although the Track team is not as large as it has been in recent years, it has proved to be more aggressive than any other team in the past. Six let-termen returned from last year's team to prove this. Coach Bartkiewicz feels that the boys played a splendid season.

In the Picture to the left, Kenny Quandt and Bill Krouse warm up before the Elmhurst meet.

Jim Yerrick is showing warming up before the big meet with Central. Jim is also a Cross Country Star.

Bill Nancarrow seems a bit out of focus when he took this hurdle. Bill is not the only hurdler on the team. Mel Vachan was absent when the picture was taken.

Ed Boboy, allstar pole vaulter seems to be up in the sky as he goes through some routine drills during practice session.

Shown here is Chuck Osterholt as he demonstrates the techniques in high jumping.

Bill Sitko stops from his routine practice to pose for our camera. With him is Bill Noncorrow on- other shotputter.

Even though Track seems to be a very easy looking sport, those who participate find out that this is a false statement. These boys give up all their time after school and Saturdays to participate. No sport is actually easy and you don't win medals without being aggressive. Many a member drops out because it is to (strenuous) to keep up. We are proud of you (who stayed).

WRESTLING

Two of Wrestling's most devoted members are Steve Mettler, a outstanding senior, and Jim Yerrick, a noble junior. Both boys are very fond of the sport and consider it the greatest sport at Central Catholic.

Both Steve and Jim are all around guys. They feel that anyone who attempts to be a member of the team should consider many factors. Among them are aggressiveness and strong determination. In the photos Jim and Steve are displaying some of the many holds used in Wrestling, Coach Bakle is assisting in their demonstration.

Erwin Walz, Tom Ramary, and Mark Schaffer are demonstrating some tennis strokes for the photographer. All three boys are from last's year team and are expected to be team leaders throughout the season.

Pictured here with Caach Bush are the returning let-termen of last year's team. All members gave excel-lent performances this year and the coach says that he is very satisfied with the team.

Senior golfers K. Webster, B. Allen, J. Anderson, J. Kramer, and T. Drooley ponder one of golf's greatest hazards, the sandtrap.

Golf Team

This year, once again under the outstanding leadership of their fine coach, Mr. Joe Daniels, the Irish linksmen hope to duplicate their achievement of two years ago. It was then that they became the first parochial school team to win any state championship in Indiana. However, win lose or draw, like all our other Irish athletes, they will be the finest possible examples of sportsmen.

Steve Meier shows the form which led C.C. to last years victories.

Soph links-stars D. Petit, J. Tonsing, S. Krull, and L. Roffelsen practicing that all important putt.

The Junior members of the golf team S. Meier, S. Bangert, P. Ducey, and A. Ball, pose with coach Joe Daniels who is in the center.

L. to R. Mike Lerry, Ed Schoub, Tom Hartzog, and Chuck Osterholt.

Student Managers

A team to win must have a solid organization. The chief organizers of any team, be it football, basketball, or track, are the coaches and the managers. The managers of Central Catholic's teams come from the student body, they are dedicated boys who serve the cause of C.C. sports.

The student managers of all of this year's teams, Mike Lerry, Tom Hartzog, Ed Schoub, and Chuck Osterholt, were all energetic and untiring in their efforts to keep our teams functioning efficiently.
